Dive into the future – live in Düsseldorf and online

COMPAMED 2021

www.compamed.de

Messe
Düsseldorf

This only happens once: the best from the world of medicine combined with the latest from the world of medical technology supplies. Be there live or online. Both leading fairs, MEDICA and COMPAMED take place at the same time, allowing you keep an eye on your entire process chain. At COMPAMED you will discover the ideas that will become tomorrow's innovations.

Synergies for better science

Two worlds, one vision: our hybrid platform

COMPAMED 2021 is being organized around a well-thought-out hygiene concept. Tickets, both for the hybrid and online-only event, are only available online.

Visit www.compamed.de/2130 for full ticket information.

COMPAMED 2021's digital content includes:

- modular digital offerings available from anywhere
- digitally showcased products and innovations
- networking, chatting and video meetings with exhibitors via our matchmaking tool
- forums and conferences via livestream
- exciting live online sessions with exhibitors

COMPAMED 2021 – live on site, online and ahead of the game on innovation.

COMPAMED remains on the road to success. And, despite the challenges, our goals remain clear in 2021: to give you an edge by promoting team play between suppliers and manufacturers – regardless of whether they come together on site or online.

Take off with high tech

And keep an eye on the entire process chain. Taking in everything from intensive dialogue, solution and investor finding – COMPAMED 2021 offers you direct access to your target group. Not to mention, a comprehensive range of components, services, digital technologies and more, from which the medical technology of tomorrow is emerging.

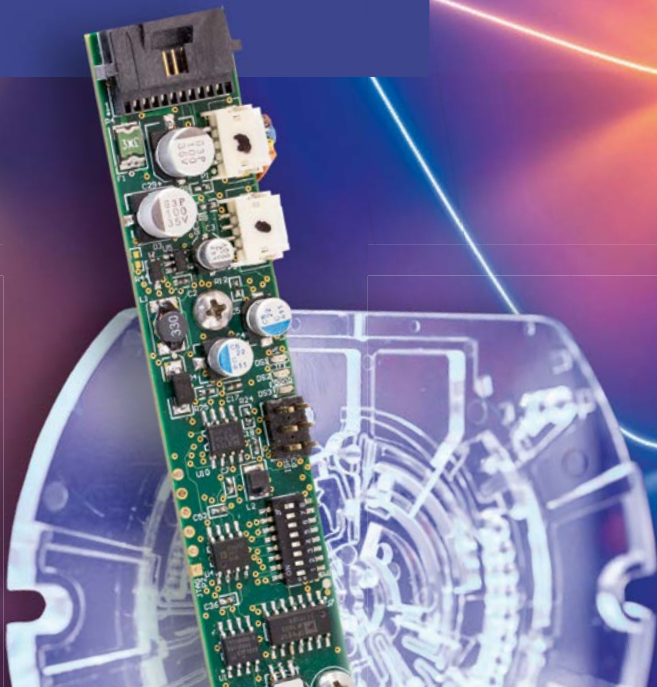

The segments at a glance:

- ▶ Manufacturing services for components
- ▶ End product manufacturing and services
- ▶ Manufacturing equipment
- ▶ Components, modules and OEM equipment
- ▶ Electrical components, electronic components and microtechnology
- ▶ Raw materials and adhesives
- ▶ Software and IT

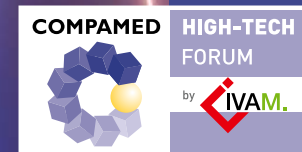

Technological challenges are growing, as is the thirst for knowledge. To keep you up to date, COMPAMED features forums and events, at which leading experts present current issues and trends. Will individual components become even smaller? Will materials and components become even smarter? You can find out here – and talk to trade visitors about where this journey is leading.

Concentrated expertise

COMPAMED SUPPLIERS FORUM by DeviceMed
▶ www.compamed.de/CSF2

A practical presentation of the latest developments throughout the process chain. Expert talks focus on mechanical and electronic components and on innovative materials, manufacturing processes, manufacturing services of all kinds, design and usability aspects, and quality assurance. Power presentations on innovative new markets round off the exciting programme.

COMPAMED HIGH-TECH FORUM by IVAM
▶ www.compamed.de/CTF2

New materials, production techniques, nano-technology and microsystems technology: leading experts share their knowledge from the world of components.
