FOOD AFRICA 2024

Africa's Premier Food & Beverages Event

Over the past 8 years, Food Africa, The International Trade Exhibition for Food & Beverages, has solidified its standing as a premier event for professionals in the food and beverages sector. This dynamic platform has been instrumental in unveiling the immense business potential of not only Egypt but the entire African continent and the MENA region.

Scheduled to take place from 3 to 5 December 2024, at the Egypt International Exhibition Center (EIEC) in Cairo, Food Africa will offer delectable business opportunities to wholesalers, distributors, and retailers from around the world, enticing them with the rich tapestry of the Egyptian market and the demanding landscape of Africa's food and beverages sector.

Over three consecutive days, the event will showcase an innovative format, intertwining product exhibitions, networking sessions with local and international stakeholders, and curated buyer-supplier matchmaking. Exhibitors will have the unique opportunity to engage face-to-face with thousands of decision-makers and industry professionals, fostering partnerships and reaping solid opportunities in Egypt's thriving market and Africa's fervent food and beverages sector.

Join us as Food Africa 2024 unfolds a new chapter in culinary exploration, where business meets innovation in the heart of Egypt!

Food & Beverages: A Booming Industry in Africa

With Africa's population projected to reach 2.5 billion by 2050, the food and beverages sector is booming, driven by a youthful and urban-centric consumer base. This surge in demand for diverse products is a key factor in the industry's role as a major driver of economic growth and job creation.

In Egypt, the food industry is experiencing notable growth, propelled by ongoing modernization in factories and robust support for small and medium-sized companies.
